

Year 5 Summer 1 Key Text: Oranges in No Man's Land

An emotional story that challenges our students to understand life for children living in different countries and cultures. It explores the determination and courage of a young girl living in a war-torn country and her resilient fight for her family's survival.

If you like Oranges in No Man's Land, the you might like to try:

- Journey to Jo'burg by Beverley Naidoo
- The Girl who Stole an Elephant by Nizrana Farook
- Secrets of a Sun King by Emma Carroll
- The Nowhere Emporium by Ross McKenzie
- Wild spark by Vashti Hardy